Australia's Most Collectible Wine

One of Australia's largest wine cellaring companies Wine Ark has reviewed more than 3 million bottles stored by its members and come up with a list of the top 50 wines Australians love to keep.

Once again most of the top 50 wines came from South Australia (60 per cent). Shiraz was the most collected variety making up 46 per cent of the top 50. With Penfolds being the most popular producer with eight of the top 50 wines.

The full details are;

Most Collected Shiraz - Penfolds Bin 95 Grange

Most Collected Cabernet - Lakes Folly Cabernets

Most Collected Pinot Noir - Mount Mary Pinot Noir

Most Collected Chardonnay - Leeuwin Estate Art Series

Most Collected Riesling - Grosset Polish Hill

Most Collected Semillon - Tyrrell's Vat 1

Rich & Linging

Rich & Linging provide award winning food and wine tours to gratify the senses. Our private tours of South Australia enable our guests to meet the winemakers and producers, visit behind the scenes to areas which may not be available to the general public. Each private tour will have sole use of our luxury vehicle, and be accompanied by a personal wine guide. Our wine guide is a professional wine taster (its a tough job!), and is 'hands on' in a boutique winery. See <http://www.richandlinging.com.au/> for more details.

Savvy is Rich & Linging's seasonal newsletter focusing on South Australia's premium food and wine producers.
